Specific guidelines

- Number of pages/words: minimum 8 and maximum 10 including all the text (references...). Between 4,000 and 5,000 words.
- Separate paragraphs with a blank space. Please do not use indentations.
- Do not use a period at the end of the main title, nor the titles of sections or subsections.
- Tables: Indicate on the table the number and descriptive title of the content, eg: "Table 1. Title of the table". Borders and shading: mark only the horizontal borders in black color, width 0.05 points (default).
- Figures, images, graphs: insert into the text as an image and at 96ppp resolution. Descriptive title "Figure 1. Title of the figure". The images will be original or the source must be correctly cited. If the image is copyrighted, you must request the author's permission to publish it in writing.
- Please keep the format of the document as simple as possible, avoiding excessive use of colours, or complex formats.
- If you include formulas or special characters, include an additional page indicating the font used.
- Cite references in the text using the "last name and date" system, instead of numbers. Check that all citations are in the reference list and vice versa.
- The book chapter will contain the following structure:
 - Title in original language and English.
 - Authors name and affiliation: Please do not submit the chapter anonymously.
 - Abstract of 150 words + keywords in original language and English.
 - General structure: introduction, objective, development/methodology, results/conclusion.
 - Acknowledgments (if applicable).
 - References: APA standards 6th ed. in alphabetical order.
 - Brief CV of each author (between 100 and 150 words).
